

Homecoming 2017: Seas the Day

Hunt for the Lion

The Hunt for the Lion will be a competition between classes for students in grades 9-12. The competition begins Saturday, January 21st at 10am. All clues will be communicated through the school's Instagram account. The contest comes to an end at 7pm on Friday, January 27th. Students, parents, alumni, and faculty are all encouraged to participate in the Hunt for the Lion. All students participating in the game should keep their Winston Salem Student ID, or some form of WSCS identification with them.

RULES:

1. You are not permitted to hide the "Lion" on any individual's private property or in any buildings or homes.
2. There are a couple of retail areas within the map, including shopping centers at the intersection of Peace Haven and Robinhood, as well as Reynolda Village. If you intend to hide the Lion in one of these areas you must first speak to the nearby business to gain permission to do so. It still must remain outdoors and 75% visible.
3. You are not permitted to hide the "Lion" at any school, park, or golf course.
4. You are not permitted to hide the "Lion" on school grounds.
5. The surface of the "Lion" must be 75% visible from a paved and marked road.
6. The "Lion" must be hidden completely inside the area drawn on the map.
7. When a grade finds the "Lion" they must immediately text Mr. Warren at (305) 801-1723. They are required to send a picture of the "Lion" to Mr. Warren's phone. The grade then has 90 minutes to hide the "Lion", create a new clue, and relay the new clue and new location to Mr. Warren. Mr. Warren will then post the new clue on the Instagram account @wscslions.
8. Unless information comes directly from a teacher, Mr. Warren, or @wscslions, consider it a rumor.
9. Any attempt to deceive or mislead other grades through false rumors or actions, is not in the spirit of the game, and will lead to disqualification.
10. Tailgating or following other cars in an attempt to find the location of the "Lion" is STRICTLY PROHIBITED, and will result in immediate disqualification and removal from the game.
11. Stalking outside of people's homes is also strictly prohibited.
12. The clue must provide meaningful information directing other grades to the location of the "Lion".

13. You MAY NOT search for the “Lion” during school hours. The game officially closes each night at 9:30PM, until the conclusion of school the next day. This rule applies to parents and alumni as well. Anyone in violation of this rule will be removed from the game.
14. The breaking of rules will result in disqualification of individuals from the Hunt for the Lion
15. A second violation of the rules will result in the disqualification of the entire grade from the Hunt for the Lion.
16. The purpose of this game is to follow the clues and discover the location of the “Lion.” Work together with your classmates and have fun. But DO NOT ruin this game by circumventing the spirit of the competition.

WINNING:

We will keep a running tally of which grade finds the “Lion” most often, AND, who brings it to the Homecoming Luau on Friday, January 27th. The last team to hold the “Lion” gets a 100-point bonus. If any questions or issues arise, please text Mr. Warren.

The Map

