SUMMER READING

AP Literature & Composition

“But in reading great literature I become a thousand men and yet remain myself. Like the night sky in the Greek poem, I see with a myriad eyes, but it is still I who see. Here, as in worship, in love, in moral action, and in knowing, I transcend myself; and am never more myself than when I do.”

~C. S. Lewis

Posting Tips

You will use Edmodo assignments to post responses as you read. Your responses should:

1. Consist of your thoughts about each one of the topics. (something interesting, puzzling, remarkable; something you learned; something you agree or disagree with; a connection you made with one of the points the author makes in that chapter; etc.)

2. Be PITHY! Lengthy is not the goal. Think quality, not quantity. If you are unsure of the definition of “pithy,” look it up :)
